

An illustration of two young girls standing in a green field under a light blue sky. The girl on the left has brown hair in pigtails and is wearing a yellow shirt and a green skirt. The girl on the right has curly brown hair and is wearing a green and white striped shirt and a yellow dress. Both girls have their hands on the other's head, and they are both smiling. A white speech bubble with a scalloped edge is positioned in the center, containing a quote.

La vera amicizia inizia quando il silenzio tra due persone è confortevole.
